

I have been listening to XM radio for two years now and during that time the terrestrial radio stations in the Portland OR. area have severely cut back their traffic reports. I don't think they have a legitimate argument for curtailing XM radio's desire to provide the service that they cannot.